NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Jordan McIntyre, aged 79, and a prominent Mercer county citizen, died last week.

The Centre College bested the State College ball team Saturday 12 to 4 on the latter's grounds.

There are six murder cases on the docket of the Laurel circuit court, which began yesterday.

The Signal says that J. C. Hays, of Crab Orchard, has bought 150 cattle in Rockcastle in the last few weeks.

The Mt. Vernon band will accompany the G. A. Rs. of Rockcastle to the reunion at Lancaster this week.

The body of T. A. Pope, who killed Charles Donahue at Lone Mountain, March 30, was found near there with a bullet hole through the skull.

At Williamsburg a jury returned a verdict of two years in the penitentiary for H. C. Daugherty, charged with the murder of William Ross.

Representative Gilbert introduced a bill to reimburse D. N. Williams, of Rockcastle county, for supplies furnished the Union army during the civil war.

While trying to arrest Millard Philpot and others at Manchester for disorderly conduct, Deputy Sheriff Felix Davidson was shot by Philpot and probably fatally wounded.

The planing mill and lumber yards of Walter Elrod & Co., of Somerset, were destroyed by fire. Loss about $1,500. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark of a passing train on the Cincinnati Southern railway.

Cal Logsdon, alias "Bootheel," a Pittsburg blind tiger operator, who has several thousand dollars in fines against him at London, for illegal whisky selling, escaped from the officers while going to the rock pile.

James Boreing, of London, son of Congressman Boreing, has been appointed to a clerkship at the National republican convention. He will leave for Philadelphia in a few days to begin the preliminary work for the convention.

Mrs. Ida Moberly died at Richmond after years of grief over the drowning of her husband, Capt. T. S. Moberly, at Atlantic City. Two months ago a beautiful daughter died, and this blow literally broke the mother's heart. She left an estate valued at $100,000.

SOMERSET.—Dr. W. A. Berum organized a Baptist congregation of 46 members at Burnside, assisted by Rev. A. C. Taylor and Rev. W. R. Davidson. —Dr Steele Bailey, a fine old Kentucky gentleman and an accomplished physician and surgeon, of Stanford, was elected for the 16th year, secretary of the State Medical Association. Mr. B. P. Gover, employe of the Q. & C., and a popular and rising young gentleman, married Miss Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bourne, of this city, at Chattanooga.—Mr. J. R. Owens, mine host at Cumberland Falls, was in the city Saturday. He reports prospects for a big crowd at the Falls this coming season are very flattering. Mr. Z. C. Martin, now salesman with [illegible] years, has sold his stump-wood [illegible] to Mr. J. S. Higgins, who is [illegible] for orders and ship them [illegible]

POLITICIANS AND POLTICS.

The whole pneumatic tube system of transporting mails was tabled by the Senate 32 to 16.

Congressman Oscar Turner, of Louisville, announces that owing to private business, he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Judge J. R Sampson, of Middlesboro, will be a candidate for appellate judge in the 7th district, on the democratic ticket.

Marmaduke B. Bowden, once a democrat and always an egotistic ignoramus, was chosen presidential elector for the State at large and so was Capt. Ed Parker, of London.

Gov. Smith, of Montana, revoked the action of Acting Gov. Spriggs in naming W. A. Clark to succeed himself in the United States Senate, and appointed Martin Maginnis, of Helena.

J. M. Richardson, of Glasgow, who was spoken of as a candidate for Congress in the 3rd district, says he is not a candidate and that John Rhea will be given a clear field by his party.

Another of the men arrested for the Cuban postal scandal has confessed. Deputy Auditor W. H. Reeves gave up $4,500 he had obtained from Neeley. The scandal was the subject of much discussion in Congress. A bill was introduced to provide for the extradition of Neeley.

The civil service commissioners, in their report on the alleged political assessments made by Collector C. E. Sapp, of Louisville, arraign him for allowing that "species of blackmail" against his employes, charge him with violating the civil service law in several particulars, and declare that the Federal building has been made the rendezvous for politicians and political gatherings, while the public service has been degraded.

The House passed a measure to pay Confederate soldiers for the loss of their horses and other personal effects taken from them in violation of Lee's capitulation to Grant, by which the officers and men of Lee's army were allowed to retain their baggage, side arms and horses. The bill originally carried $200,000, but the specific sum was stricken out and the appropriation made indefinite. Many other claim bills were passed.

HE FOOLED THE SURGEONS.

All doctors told Henick Hamilton of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed, but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

A FOLLOWER OF MEASLES.—In many instances a persistent cough follows an attack of measles. In speaking of this Mr. Walter B. Best, editor of the Elkin, N. C., Times, says: "Three weeks ago I had an attack of measles which left me with a bad cough. I took several doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the cough has entirely disappeared. I consider Chamberlain's medicines the best on the market." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The 75th annual commencement exercises of Science Hill, Shelbyville, will be held June 3d.

LIVINGSTON.

Miss Jeanette Gillispie, of Virginia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Parker, at the Eight Gables. Mrs. M. J. Goodin has again taken rooms at that hotel. W. M. Fields has been with homefolks for several days at Maywood. Miss Annie Ashlock, who has been quite sick at the Eight Gables for a week or more, is again able to be at the store. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Carter left Sunday night for Nashville to be gone a month. Little Lizzie McKinney went to Stanford Sunday to visit her aunt, Mrs. W. O. Speed. Mesdames M. J. Goodin, Magee and Burns made a flying visit to Pine Hill Wednesday. Dr. Henry Pettus and wife have moved to Crab Orchard. Mrs. Buckley has been visiting Mrs. McKenna at the Mullins Hotel. Mesdames Will Carpenter and Felix Bowman, who have been sick for quite awhile, are both able to be out again. Mrs. Carpenter left with her sister, Miss Mollie Farmer, Sunday, to spend the summer with her parents near Elizabethtown. Larkin Chumley has bought of A. N. Bentley a cottage near the river mansion. J. C. Rinehart and family have taken rooms with Robert Burns. George Whitson, engineer on South end local, has been off for several days fishing. Mrs. N. R. Dillion has been on the sick list. Bob Owens, of Hazel Patch, was in town Sunday. Mrs. B. N. Roller is in Louisville this week. Mrs. Dr. Cooper took little Grace Wilson to the Orphans' Home at Louisville Tuesday. Misses Lida Cook, Katherine Walker, Jeanette Gillispie, Pearl Pollock and McKennas; Mesdames Goodin, Moore, Mullins and Roller; Messrs. Dillion, Saunders and Moore went on a fishing excursion Friday to Dillion's switch. All report a good time, but not many fish. C. H. Burns has gone on through freight from Paris to Livingston. Mrs. W. O. Burns went to Stanford Saturday. J. F. Hocker, of Junction City, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. D. S. McKinney. Mrs. Sue Mullins was in Mt. Vernon Sunday. Dr. Jim Sams has returned home from Louisville, where he has been attending school. Ashlock & Rinehart have just received a nice new line of summer millinery. Mrs. Dr. J. M. Black, of Knoxville, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Rinehart. Mesdames Dr. Lucas, Angie Smith and Susie Hicks visited their mother at Wildie. Mr. and Mrs. Doss returned from their bridal tour Sunday and have taken rooms at the Stuckey Hotel.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

Judge J. W. Martin, of Little Rock, was elected moderator by the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly in Atlanta.

Quarterly Conference will be held at the Methodist church Friday night, when Presiding Elder F. S. Pollitt will be present and preach.

Rev. William A. Echols, a commissioner to the Presbyterian general assembly from Middleport, O., dropped dead in St. Louis from heart failure.

The Northern Methodist General Conference reaffirmed the church's stand against dancing, playing games of chance, attending theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties or patronizing dancing schools and other amusements which can not be used in the name of the Lord Jesus.

On the closing day of the Louisville Jockey Club meeting, the Kentucky Oaks was won by Etta, John E. Madden's good Falsetto—Manola filly. The meeting from every standpoint was the best ever given in Louisville. The attendance for the 15 days exceeded that of last year, or any other year, by nearly 1,000 a day.

ALIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages, coughed night and day. All my doctors said I would soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be with out it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's drug store.

MASS CONVENTION.

There will be a mass convention of the democrats of Lincoln county at the court house in Stanford, Ky., Saturday June 16th, at 2 P. M., standard time, for the purpose of selecting delegates to a convention to be held at Harrodsburg June 20th to nominate a candidate for Congress. JNO. W. HOLMES, Chm'n.

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT

is enjoyed by all dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, give a splendid appetite, good digestion and a regular healthy habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

Mrs. Wm. Neill, of Augusta, Ga., has a mockingbird which she has taught to talk.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, of Lincoln, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Sexton.

A fund has been raised to start a street sprinkler, which is very much needed.

The matinee given by home talent Saturday was well attended and gave perfect satisfaction.

Heck's Vaudeville Co. promises to have good crowds at the opera house Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

On Saturday night Jordan Fish was stabbed and cut, not seriously, by Charles Phelps. Both are colored.

Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church in this city next Sunday, and as he always gives us an able discourse, a good audience will hear him.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Hemphill will entertain at their palatial home on Lexington Avenue, Tuesday evening May 22d. Many of the elite will be present and it goes without saying that they will be royally entertained.

The commencement exercises of the graded school at the Christian church Wednesday at 10:30 A. M., should be well attended as they will be interesting and we should show an appreciation for the school, which is one of the best in the State.

Mr. G. B. Swinebroad attended court at Harrodsburg last week. George Smith, Jr., spent a few days in Somerset. Mrs. G. A. Swinebroad has been sick for several days of rheumatism. Mr. G. M. Patterson has returned and reports that the new dynamo will be here this week.

Gen. Gordon's lecture on "The Last Days of the Confederacy," is endorsed by President McKinley and leading G. A. R. posts as non-partisan and highly entertaining. The veterans of both sides and many citizens will hear him at the court house Thursday night, 24. Only those who can be seated will be admitted. Get seats at McRoberts' drug store.

The people of our town and county have united with our commercial club in contributing liberally to entertain the Louisville Commercial Club next Friday. Everything palatable has been procured and they will be prepared to testify to Garrard's enterprise, prosperity and hospitality. With J. W. Miller, John Farra, Hugh Logan and John Stormes on the committee of entertainment, success is assured.

Mr. Crutchfield Henderson, age 70 years, died suddenly at his home near Lowell, Saturday afternoon, having been in poor health for some time. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon and the remains were buried in Paint Lick cemetery in the presence of many friends and relatives. Deceased was one of the worthy and substantial citizens of the county and he belonged to a large and an influential family.

On Friday at 11 o'clock A. M., Mrs. Mary Broaddus, an estimable lady, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. R. A. Stone, in this city, in the 68th year of her age. Funeral services were conducted at the residence Saturday by Rev. Coyle and a long procession of relatives and friends followed the remains to Lancaster cemetery for interment. She was a worthy, christian lady and had many friends. She and her husband, Mr. Morton Broaddus, who survives her, raised several children who are held in the highest esteem by all those with whom they associate.

Capt. Herndon has succeeded in getting the promise of the Irvine Post G. A. R., to bring with them on the 24th, the historic flag, which was the first one planted on Mount Lookout by Capt. Wilson and six men of the 5th Kentucky Infantry, after the "battle above the clouds," a graphic description of which is given in Wright's History of the 5th Ky. It is much worn and tattered and attracted more attention than any object at the National G. A. R. encampment in Washington City in 1892, when it was carried by Capt Wilson, who has since joined the silent majority.

A liberal reward will be paid to any one who will give a reason why our people should not give the right of way for the extension of the Southern Railroad. A thousand advantages will be derived from making Lancaster a competitive point and the farmer will derive more benefits than town people from the fact that he gets better rates on what he consumes and what he produces while the town man is only benefited on what he consumes. The benefits to the farmer and shipper will soon pay for any reasonable contribution in reduced freight rates, which means better prices for all articles produced, from a turnip to a fatted bullock.

A commendable spirit of patriotism is being manifested by our people preparatory to entertaining the G. A. R. Thursday and Friday. Mr. Flesinger will entertain 200 at the Garrard at $1 per day and families will entertain as many more. The citizens have contributed liberally to the expense fund. Public business and private houses are all being beautifully decorated and all necessary arrangements are being made to make it the greatest event in the history of our city and a pleasant occasion for all visitors. Music, speeches, flowers, flags and everything pleasing to the ear, the eye or the taste will conspire to cause our city to be pleasantly remembered by all who attend.

CRAB ORCHARD.

G. W. Singleton will put in a stock of goods at Cedar Creek soon.

Saturday was a busy day in town and most of our merchants were rushed.

You can get a pretty bronze clock free at F. J. Jones & Co's. Call and see how.

W. D. Ramsey is selling feed of various kinds at the store-house he purchased of A. H. Bastin.

Agent Mrs. Alice Newland says that business at the depot is double as great as it was this time last year.

Saturday stock sales have not yet commenced but it won't be long before the auctioneer's voice will be heard.

The sulphur well at the depot is as popular as ever. Throngs of people gather there to drink the best water in the State.

Mr. J. J. Brooks will send down some more money for the Goebel monument (and as soon as those who promised, bring in their donations.

At the last meeting of the city trustees Andrew Buchanan was elected to succeed Morris J. Harris, who resigned, and W. A. Beazley was made chairman.

Manager Gus Hofmann has not yet perfected his plans for running the springs this year, but it will be more of a health resort than a watering place.

Mine Host, W. A. Beazley, of the Beazley Hotel, says that more drummers have visited Crab Orchard in the last few months than in the same length of time for years.

By the decline in certain grades of lumber J. H. Collier and others will lose heavily. G. W. Singleton, who is just making his first shipment from his mill on Cedar Creek, will catch it also.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will give a strawberry supper in Edmiston's store room next Friday night for the benefit of the church. Go and see that your friends do likewise.

T. M. Estes has closed his butcher shop on account of hot weather and our people have to send to other points for fresh meats. Miss Jennie Payne has her millinery stock in the room he occupied.

R. H. Bronaugh spent Saturday at home. He shipped his string of nine horses from Louisville to Newport the day before and will race them there this week. Two bang tails of the lot belong to S. H. Baughman, of your city.

J. S. Dameron and his aunt have just completed a cozy cottage on Springs street, which they will occupy until they erect a handsome home on the site where the Lawless residence burned. The two houses will materially improve this part of town.

Mr. C. C. McClure and family have gone to housekeeping in Joe McClure's house on Stanford Street. His daughter Miss Nannie, who has been attending Normal School at Lebanon, O., returned Sunday. Cash Herrin, of Rockcastle, is with his brother, W. I. Herrin.

Manager Gus Hofmann, of Crab Orchard Springs, went to Lexington Saturday morning. Mrs. Dr. I. S. Burdett and three weeks old son, David Payne Burdett, are down from Brodhead with her parents, Dr. J. W. Guest, of Louisville, spent several days with homefolks here. Bright Ferrell is now storekeeper-ganger at James' distillery.

Although there are over 3,000 barrels of whisky in J. W. James' warehouse, less than 20 barrels belong to him. The demand for its output is great and he usually sells it before it is made. By the way, it is reported that there are indictments in the U. S. court against both Mr. James and Curtis Gover for shipping whisky C. O. D., to certain mountain counties. They don't seem to be scared, however, as some 20 jags went up Saturday and it was hardly up to the average day for shipping it.

WINDOW DISPLAY.

We frequently hear the claim "something given for nothing," but we do not often see an actual demonstration of the principle like the display of Lion Coffee premiums now on exhibition in Thomas Dalton's window.

Here are many valuable articles, all given free for the lion heads cut from Lion Coffee wrappers. These are not cheap articles, but comprise clocks, umbrellas, watches, gold rings and jewelry, besides many things useful and ornamental in the household, or will be enjoyed by the children. Lion Coffee fully deserves the popularity, which it has gained, because of its superior strength and flavor.

GLORIOUS NEWS!

Comes from Dr. D. B. Caugle, of Wichita, I. T. He writes: "Your bottles of Electric Bitters have cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what Electric Bitters do when all else fails. They are the best blood purifier known. For the worst form of eczema, tetter salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores, it effectually cures. Kidneys and bowels, stands pre-eminent. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., — MAY 22, 1900

W. P. WALTON.

IT is absolutely disgusting to read the proceedings of the late republican convention at Louisville. The grand stand performances of the leaders, Taylor's play for sympathy and the participation of such detestable renegades and sell outs as Bill Yost, Tallow Dick Knott and others of their ilk are enough to make one blush for humanity. It must have been fearfully pathetic to see Taylor, his wife and seven children march down the aisle and to have seen him afterwards do the crocodile act as Bradley told of the alleged outrages that had been inflicted on him. We opine, however, that if Taylor did really shed tears it was because of his own sins and not that of others towards him. Remorse comes to every conscience no matter how dwarfed and seared, and Taylor must have experienced such a moment as he thought of the grand man sent to his untimely grave by his connivance. All the scenes connected with the fearful tragedy, doubtless rushed to his mind and he saw again the bleeding and dying victim of the foulest political conspiracy of the century. He remembered how he shielded the assassin, by preventing a search of the building occupied by himself and the other conspirators, how he "pardoned" men suspected of the crime and attempted to spirit them away disguised as soldiers and protected by a squad sworn to take them to the mountain fastnesses and of how he did other divers and sundry deeds that made the angels weep. No wonder he cried. A savage could not recall such acts and not shed tears. Well might Taylor exclaim, "Oh miserable man that I am, who will deliver me from the body of this death."

The speeches of those arch traitors, Yost and Knott, pledging their support and allegiance added to the farce-comedy of the whole business, which will be remembered only with disgust. The republican party is sliding down the toboggan to hades and with such weights as the two named, Breckinridge, Bossom, Bruce and others, will soon land with a dull thud at the bottom.

HERE are some choice excerpts from Senator Deboe's remarks while presiding in the republican convention at Louisville: "The convention will set down and be quiet." "I'll not recognize no man until he takes his seat." "It is now moved and seconded that the election of Gov. Taylor and Gov. Bradley be elected unanimous." "You ain't got no right to monkey with Clay county, if you ain't no delegate," and so on and so on. This will do pretty well for the "per diem, per day" senator, whose ignorance and stupidity have made him famous. Strange to say he didn't even take a short nap, as is his custom in the Senate chamber, but sat through the entire evening, with eyes wide open and green with envy to see his arch enemy triumph over him and regale the leadership of the party.

GOV. BEADLEY has again resumed his leadership of the Kentucky republicans. He was the "Big I Am" of the convention, and is now regarded as the "Moses" of the party. Great efforts are being brought to bear to have him become the candidate for governor, but he declines all overtures to that end. For awhile it looked like the bottom rail was on top, but brains out weighed potatoes in the race for supremacy and Bradley comes to his own again, almost without effort. He will head the delegation to the National convention and dish out Federal pie, while Deboe plays a very weak second fiddle.

WRITING of the term "Goebelism," as offensively used by enemies of the great leader, Mr. Watterson turns his attention in Saturday's Courier Journal to the class of cattle who delight in it, and after flaying them alive, pays the highest eulogium to Gov. Goebel, whom he characterizes "as an honest man, a brave and loyal man and a clean, sober, decorous, hard-working, public-spirited man." Such a man indeed was Goebel. His maligners are not worthy to take his name in the sin polluted lips.

THE republicans said not a word about the assassination in their platform, but Gov. Bradley succeeded after much opposition in getting the following resolution adopted: "We unqualifiedly denounce the assassination of Senator Goebel and pledge ourselves to assist in the detection and conviction of the assassin." The loud cheers which greeted the reading of the resolution showed how the republicans sympathize with assassination.

GOV. BEADLEY said in his convention speech that with Yost and others whom he named, who had deserted the democratic party, all the brains had departed from it. Nay, nay, Mr. Vice President, you mistake the matter. It is evidently g—ts that you mean, especially in the case of Yost.

THE Louisville Dispatch, which subsists only by stirring up strife and making assassination possible, cries out in anguish, the Courier Journal's answer: "There is no peace." Of course so long as the subsidized organs of political trusts can raise a row.

THE Preston Herald, edited by the last old Confederate, who used to wear a sword as lively as he now does a lead pencil, has changed to a six-column quarto. Good otherwise improved, of course, is a credit to any paper.

THAT superb specimen of femininity, Miss Ida May Dickey, who has been with Mrs. J. S. Rice, returned to Cave City yesterday and several hearts are in mourning.

Samuel Moser, who killed his wife and three children at Fremont, Ill., attempted to kill himself at Salt Lake, Utah. He first shot himself and then plunged into a river.

EUGENE WILSON, of this county, who went to Lexington to take a business course, has secured a good position with the city railway, his sister, Miss Mary, who was here Friday, informed us.

A LETTER from D. R. Carpenter, of [illegible]ville, to his brother, Dr. J. G. [illegible]enter, brings the information that [illegible] running for representative with [illegible] chances to win. Of course he is [illegible]

MRS. MONTIE FOX and children, of Danville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baughman.

P. B. TWIDWELL is back at Hustonville from Cleveland, O., where he has spent some time.

WE are sorry to learn that that excellent old gentleman, Mr. J. V. Cook, of Lancaster, is very sick.

DR. B. F. HERNDON, one of Knox county's good democrats, was mingling with friends at Danville yesterday.

DR. HAWKINS BROWN and Mrs. Mary Green, of Hustonville, are both ill. Miss Lou Hocker is improving.

MRS. BRECKINRIDGE JONES, and daughters, Misses Frances and Mary D., will arrive today from St. Louis to visit relatives.

MR. AND MRS. MONROE CURTIS are in a very sad condition. He has lost his sight almost entirely and she is totally deaf and sick.

NEWS comes that a son, W. K. Smith, Jr., has further blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Smith, of Clifton Forge, Va. The mother was Miss Edna Courts, of this place.

MR. J. H. COLLIER, of Crab Orchard, who was here yesterday, tells us that his sons, Harvey and Tom, Jim Edmiston, Park Anderson and Jim Pleasants drove over to Hickman yesterday in private conveyance for a week's fishing in Kentucky river.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

TAKE your watches, clocks and jewelry to Embry & Engleman. *

I WILL give a portrait with each dozen cabinets in best finish, for cash with order, this week only. Maggie Sacray. *

STORE FOR SALE.—First-class stand; clean, fresh stock. Good run of trade Satisfactory reasons for selling. See editor of this paper. *

NEW GROCERY.—Mr. Jacob Ginsburg has opened a grocery stock in one of Mrs. M. J. Miller's storerooms and says he is almost going to give goods away.

THE Lion coffee salesman, has recently been handing copies of their premium list around at the houses. See their display of premiums in Thomas Dalton's window. *

THE Somerset Journal is so anxious to know where the money paid to the city for taxes, licenses etc., goes, that it says it will print gratuitously a statement from the treasurer of Pulaski's capital. Make 'em show up "Brer Ceph."

ADVERTISING by the inch will not be increased in price in our larger size, and advertisers will get the full amount they contracted for, but the price per column will be increased $13 a year, which is at the same rate previously charged.

THE Lion coffee hustlers have come to town, and are exploiting far and wide "the cup that cheers, but does not inebriate." *

IN Thomas Dalton's front window is a display of Lion coffee premiums, many fine articles exchanged for trade marks cut from Lion coffee wrappers. *

TENT MEETING.—Rev. J. H. Fagaley's tent meeting will be held in the Logan school house yards and begin June 3rd. He will be assisted by volunteer preachers from many points.

WE like the Harrodsburg Democrat because it copies so much from us which of course, is good readin'. Bro Bos well forgets to credit, however, but he is young in the cause and we raise no kick.

CENSUS enumerators will be required to wear a badge. They will be made of German silver, and bear the words, "United States Census, 1900." An order has already been placed for 80,000 of these badges by the director of the census.

MIND GONE. POOR BOY.—Louis Landram still thinks he thinks that Lancaster has the Southern railway extension nailed down without Danville being close enough to hear the whistle blow. Poor old Louis, too much G. A. R. hath made thee mad.—Advocate.

GORDON.—It is not necessary for us to comment on the lecture nor extol the greatness of that grand old Confederate, Gen. John B. Gordon, who will tell us about "The Last Days of the Confederacy," at Walton's Opera House, Friday night, next. The simple announcement of his coming will fill the building. Secure your seat now at W. B. McRoberts'.

INCH PARTY.—Be sure to attend the "Inch Party" to be given by the Warred Grigsby Chapter U. D. C. at the Veranda Hotel, from 7 to 10 P. M., tomorrow, 23d. The proceeds are to go towards erecting a modest monument to gallant Maj Whaley, the Georgian, who died here of wounds and was buried in Buffalo Cemetery. Your measurement will be taken and you pay to enter as follows:

Just one foot, two feet, three feet, four;
You must measure at the door.
And for each foot you measure tall,
Just three cents in the sack let fall.

How few do "end" in even feet,
So all the inches you must meet.
And thus when even feet you lack,
Two cents an inch drop in the sack.

Mrs. Alcorn tells us that the Centre College quartette, a superior musical organization, has been engaged to make melony for the occasion and which will greatly enhance the delightfulness that the evening is sure to bring.

Everybody is cordially invited.

HAYDEN BRANCHING OUT.—The Paris News says: "Mr. J. W. Hayden, a wealthy merchant of Stanford, has associated himself with the R. P. Dow Wholesale Grocery Co., of this city, and the firm will in the future be known as the Dow-Hayden Grocery Co. Besides operating in this city, the new firm will also run a branch wholesale grocery in Winchester. The two houses will be connected by a private wire. The Winchester house will be managed by Mr. Hayden, assisted by Mr. H. M. Jones, late of the Armour Packing Co., of Chicago. The augmented capital of the Dow-Hayden Co. will enable it to largely increase its volume of business. The main office of the company will be in this city, and all of the buying and banking will be done here. They will have six traveling salesmen out on the road.

Mr. Hayden returned Saturday night from making the deal and tells us that he will spend this week at home winding up his business and go to Winchester next week permanently. His family will remain here during the summer. There seems to be no doubt that Mr. Hayden has struck a good thing and while his friends here are sorry to lose him, they are glad to know he has such bright prospects.

HADES TO PAY.—For the first time since the present owner took charge 25 years ago, the INTERIOR JOURNAL was late in getting out Friday. It went to press about on time, but when 200 or 300 papers had been run off, the new two revolution machine stopped short never to go again, till an absolutely essential part which had scapped like a pipe stem, could be recast and returned. The expert, Mr. Max Steinegar, who had put up the press, left at once for his house, the American Type Founders Co., at Cincinnati, to have the damage repaired and the four forms too large to be printed at once on our 33x47 Cottrell drum cylinder, changed to meet the new conditions, had to be worked off two at a time on it, requiring nearly 6,000 impressions and about five hours' time. It was a tough piece of luck, such as might make a sanctification preacher curse a blue streak, but we held our temper as well as possible and wondered afterwards how we got through the many vexations of the day. If the break is repaired in time this issue will be printed on the new press, if not the slow process of printing two forms at a time will have to be repeated. In either event, however, we ask the ferrent prayers of the sympathetic.

THE business manager will be at Mt. Vernon next Monday, first day of circuit court, and hopes to meet his old clients and patrons. See him if you want the cheapest and best paper in the State.

AN Indiana man was here last week trying to buy out William Hamilton, the jeweler, but that gentleman knows a good thing and consequently did not sell. The Hoosier offered him $1,200 for his stock and $600 for his good will.

CLOSED.—Prof. M. O. Winfrey's school closed Friday and the professor and wife left yesterday for Glasgow to spend most of the summer. L. R. Hughes and mother will occupy the house they vacated, while their new house is being built.

IN FRANCE.—Mr. Ed Wilkinson has a letter from his sister-in law, Mrs. Robert Wilkinson, at New Decatur, Ala., saying that a cablegram from Paris, France, from her husband, who was mysteriously missing, told her of his safe arrival there, but gave no explanation of his sudden departure from home.

30 TO 3.—The Danville "Sophs" can't play ball a little bit. They came up Saturday afternoon in high feather, but returned with heads bowed down. At the end of the sixth inning the score stood 30 to 3 in favor of our boys and the visitors threw up the sponge. The Stanford battery, Harry Higgins and George Florence, as usual, did fine work.

SOMERSET, known to the majority of the patrons of Beazley Bros'. livery stable, is no more. He got away from Driver John Sneed in Danville Saturday, and while running, fell and broke one of his front legs in two places, making it necessary to kill him. He was a great horse for long drives and made more hard trips and came in in better shape than any horse in Central Kentucky. This makes three horses the above firm has lost in a month

THE commencement calendar of Stanford Female College is as follows: May 29, 8 P. M., the Art Reception at the College; Sunday, June 3, at 10:45 A. M., the Anniversary Sermon by Rev. J. R. Savage, of Danville, at the Baptist church; Wednesday, June 6, at 8 P. M., Annual Concert at Walton's Opera House; Thursday, June 7, at 10:30 A. M., in the same building, Commencement Address by Rev. W. H. Ryalls, of Richmond, and conferring degrees on graduates.

SIX years ago Sunday, six inches of snow covered the ground. It was quite cold enough for snow this time, as the mercury went below 50 and the air felt frosty Sunday and yesterday. Old observers say that from May 20 to June 5 is the time when blackberries bloom and should a cold spell happen during the dates mentioned it will be the forerunner for an immense crop of the luscious berries for that year. A good rain fell Friday night, which was worth thousands of dollars to the farmers.

BIG TIME.—Chief Train Dispatcher L. M. Westerfield, who was there, says the Knights of Pythias had a big time at the fair grounds near Pittsburg. Between 2,000 and 3,000 people were on hand, there was abundance to eat, oratory was on tap and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion. At night the splendid new hall was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies and some fine initiatory work done. It was a big day for the K. P's and it is to be hoped that much good to the order will result from it.

ABRAHAM.—Five funerals in one household in 17 months is the unusual record in the Abraham family. First Mr. George C. Abraham died at the age of 80, then Miss Marietta, daughter of W. F. Abraham, 22. Miss Sidney Abrahams, aged 87, Miss Kittie, 17, and, Saturday Mr. W. F. Abraham breathed his last of Bright's disease, aged 72, leaving but one of a formerly prominent family, Mrs. Martha Arnold, aged 75. Elder J. G. Livingston preached the funeral sermons of them all, that of the last to die Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, when the body of W. F. Abraham was laid with the rest in the family burying ground on the premises that all were born and raised. The remarks of the preacher, whose friend he was, were both touching and appropriate and then five of his brother Confederates, Judge M. C. Saufley, J. H. Miller, M. S. Peyton, R. G. Collier and G. W. DeBord, consigned the remains to the tomb. Deceased was a member of Capt. T. H. Shanks' company, Grigsby's regiment, and served gallantly through the war for the cause that was lost. After the war he dealt largely in stock and was quite a prominent man in affairs generally. Some 23 years ago he married Mrs. Harriett Buchanan, who bore him one child, Marietta, whose sad death nearly broke his heart and from the effects of which he never recovered. When he was taken ill last winter, he sent for Elder Livingston to whom he made a confession and by whom he was baptized in a box of water made for that purpose. Like the rest of the family, all of whom it will be seen lived to old age, he hung on to life with great tenacity and for months had been at the point of death, which finally came as a foul relief to his worn out body.

LECTURE.—H. S. Bonsib, of Vincennes, Ind., will deliver a free lecture on prohibition at the Christian church at Hustonville Wednesday night.

WITH his storeroom brightened with new paper and otherwise improved, Mr. Joseph Ginsburg is better able than ever to wait on his big trade.

IF this is not what you call a newspaper in every sense you are pretty hard to please. At any rate we are proud of it and hope our patrons feel the same way.

DR J. C. BARKER, of Hustonville, asks us to state that the Casey County Medical Society will be held at Liberty Thursday, when an interesting program will be carried out.

THERE were 37 white persons examined by Miss Kate Bogle and L. R. Hughes for teachers' certificates Friday and Saturday. The colored applicants will be examined next Friday and Saturday.

THIEVES entered Alex Traylor's house Saturday night and got away with $1 50 and a few other things They took Mr. Traylor's clothes but were clever enough to leave them in the garden.

THE L. & N. will sell tickets to the Confederate Reunion at Louisville, May 28-30, at one cent a mile, making the round trip fare from here $2.10. Tickets good till June 4th, with privilege of extension to the 10th.

THE glorious news of the democratic victory before the supreme court was the subject of inquiry from this office from points in Casey, Pulaski and Garrard. Our telephone bell was rung almost continually from 1 to 6 P. M. by anxious inquirers.

PRESSES.—We are indebted to the Danville Advocate, Somerset Journal and Corbin Pathfinder for notices that we have a nearly new 33x47 Drum Cylinder Cottrell Press and a 14x22 Gordon used but little for sale. Will other newspapers also favor us with a notice and draw on us for ad libitum?

JAMES FRYE, one of Hustonville's solid merchants, resumes his advertisement after a rest of a few months, during which time he has seen the advantage derived from advertising in a good newspaper. He has painted his store green, named it green, uses green wrapping paper but is not a green merchant by a long shot.

A HERO in war, a statesman in peace and a born orator will lecture at Walton's Opera House, Friday night, for the benefit of the Perryville Battle Field Park. Gen. Gordon, "the officer who was nearest to the great heart of Gen. Robert E. Lee," will tell about the war in which he took so active a part and fill both Confederate and Federal with martial enthusiasm It is a rare treat to have such a man with us Be sure to embrace this, perhaps last chance to hear him.

4TH OF JULY.—At the meeting Friday night, the committee on program approved the following order of exercises for the day: Thirteen guns are to be fired at 7 A. M. by anvil battery. Parade of floats, &c., at 9:30 A. M. Speaking and music by bands and choirs from 10:30 to 12. In the afternoon balloon ascensions, races of various kinds, contests of local talent in several lines, to conclude with fire works from 8 to 9 P. M. Committee on printing, E. H Beazley and John S. Baughman; committee on relics and museum, J. C. McClary, Joe F. Waters and A. A. Warren.

BOSLEY O. K.—The alleged shortage in Postmaster Bosley's accounts at Paris shows no dishonesty on his part or that of his assistants. It seems to have been an error in bookkeeping. The amount, $261, subject to a credit of $100, was promptly paid by Mr. Bosley, who rather hastily sent in his resignation, which he afterwards withdrew. In the meantime, so Mr. Bosley tells the Democrat, Senator Deboe had, on the recommendation of George Denny named Sherman Silvers for the place Thereupon, Mr. Bosley wrote Senator Deboe a tart letter, taking him to task for trying to throw down a friend, and then Deboe withdrew his recommendation.

LEGAL PAPERS SOLD.—A few issues ago, we published an item that Gold & Bickoff, the junk dealers, had bought a lot of papers, which was evidently from the Casey county clerk's office, as it contained old deeds, marriage licenses, patents, &c., of an ancient nature The item scared up the clerk, I. C. Dye, and he employed Attorney Geo. E. Stone to recover them. He wrote to Mr. G. B. Cooper to secure J. B. Paxton to that end and when they went to the junk dealers, they wanted $400 to give the papers up, although they had given but $2 40 for the 800 pounds. They did this on the advice of a Danville attorney, who told them not to surrender them for less than $1,000. They finally, however, after some dickering, agreed to take $10 and that amount was paid. It seems that Jailer Tom Bell, of Casey, not knowing that the papers were valuable, sold them to W. M. Lipe, who, in turn, sold them to Gold & Bickoff. No one is suspected of any wrong intention in the matter and the worst that can be charged is

When one announces that the most magnificent thing about life is life, one is not toying with the words, says C. Hanford Henderson, in Atlantic. One is simply announcing a very obvious and far-reaching truth. But it is a platitude which will bear repeating; for rich and poor alike, the world over, are squandering nothing quite so remorselessly as just this most magnificent of all their possessions, their life. The poor are squandering it on food and shelter and clothing, and very wretched stuff at that; sometimes they are squandering it in forced or self-chosen idleness. The middle class are squandering it on a somewhat better grade of the same so-called necessaries, and in still larger measure on the hazard of wealth. The rich are squandering it on the bolder hazard of greater wealth and in the pursuit of impossible pleasure—pleasure bought at the expense of another. But in the midst of this disorder and enabling us, by the contrast, to recognize it as disorder, one does see here and there men and women spending life wisely and beautifully, living in the experimental life, and more thrifty still, one sees on all sides the children. Now, whether we squander life on the trifling pursuits of the majority, or whether we spend it wisely and beautifully after the manner of the minority, will all depend upon the ideas which we bring to the adventure. The same stone may be fashioned into a temple of the spirit or into a fortress of cruelty; it depends upon the idea of the builder. The same metal may be fashioned into sword or plowshare; it depends upon the idea of the artificer. The same grain may nourish as food, or deprave as drink; it depends upon the idea of the husbandman. So the same life may be squandered on that which is not worth while, or expended on that which is excellent; it depends upon the idea of the man. The altogether significant, compelling, momentous thing is the idea.

Our Best Possession.

The housewives in a certain section of Omaha would very much like to interview the kindly-faced and eloquent gentleman who recently sold them Bermuda lily bulbs. They have a few things to say to him and are prepared to say them in proper style. The kindly faced and eloquent gentleman in question recently passed through the city and gathered up a goodly quantity of shekels, the same being current coin of the realm. In return therefor he left bulbs that were warranted to produce lilies that would cheer the hearts of the housewives and make home a veritable bower of beauty. His customers now have choice lots of well-developed onions which they will dispose of at ruinous prices.

A New York man lost a bet of a new hat. He at once wrote the other man, telling him to purchase any kind or style of hat and send along the bill. In due time the bill arrived—$60. As soon as the dropped jaw of the man regained its normal poise he went to the hatter and asked about it. He found that the $60 represented an elaborately trimmed woman's hat, the establishment dealing in both genders of headgear. The winner of the bet had, it seemed, turned over to his wife the loser's order, and she, being a prominent club woman in town, had construed the license as to style and kind all too literally. That loser now makes hat bets only with bachelors.

Joseph Quong, a Chinese laundryman, is a candidate for a seat in the city council of Toledo, O. He has been nominated by the republicans in one of the wards which under ordinary conditions is overwhelmingly democratic. This year, however, there are two democratic candidates in the field, and Quong, whose nomination was a joke, stands a good chance of election.

Baltimore estimates that in ten years its population has increased not less than 100,000. The number of new dwellings erected in ten years is over 20,000. Cincinnati has more than doubled its area by recent annexation, and counts on a population of 350,000. Troy, N. Y., has taken in its neighboring towns, and is looking forward to the 150,000 mark.

An interesting fact in connection with a new overland train that is about to be put into service between St. Louis and Puget sound, by way of Billings, Mont., is that for nearly the entire distance of 2,250 miles it will run through country acquired by the United States at the time of the Louisiana purchase, in 1804.

A railroad man says that there is no limit to the size of the American locomotive, and "as long as heavy rails can be secured, just so long will engines grow. Some of these days we will be using 200-pound rails and locomotives twice the size of those now in use."

A faster says that the discomforts of living without eating for several weeks are not serious, and after the first week of fasting they are hardly noticeable, and yet there are still fewer discomforts in three square meals a day, as anyone will admit.

Ohio women took active part in the recent contest for members of board of education, for which offices they are electors, and were in many cases candidates.

AN EPIDEMIC OF WHOOPING COUGH.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from the disease. J. H.
